1. Yugoslav circles in opposition to the regime are stunned by the failure of Western news media to realize that Article 30, paragraph 7 of the Soviet-Yugoslav agreement calls for the same cooperation (exchange of Socialist experiences) as that for which the Cominform was originally created.<sup>1</sup> Buried in this clause is the Party-to-Party relationship called for by Khrushchev.
2. These circles also feel that the common ideology of the Soviet and Yugoslav Communist Parties, based on Marx, Engels and Lenin, is such that the Yugoslav Government will without doubt increasingly serve not only its own interests, but the common interests of the USSR and the Satellites in the ideological field, including their efforts to undermine the capitalist governments.
